PUBLIC NOTICE COURT OPERATIONS UPDATE

The Superior Court of California, County of San Joaquin (Court), with this, provides public notice, according to Government Code section 68106, of changes in court operations, in response to the spread of Coronavirus (COVID-19). These changes will be in effect until further notice.

To reduce the risk to the public, staff, and judicial officers, and to achieve maximum social distancing, entry into the courthouse will be limited to the following:

- Attorneys
- Parties/Defendants
- Minor/Minor's Parents
- Law Enforcement
- Those filing or picking up restraining orders
- Witnesses
- Couriers
- Jurors

No other persons will be permitted without good cause.

The Court will continue to take reasonable safety precautions to keep the public, court staff, judicial officers and others safe.

Pursuant to the Court Administrative Order of the Presiding Judge, all persons who enter the courthouses will have their temperature taken by a temperature-scanning device. Any person who refuses to have their temperature taken, or has a temperature of 100.4 degrees or higher, will not be permitted to enter the courthouses. Per Governor Newsom's mandate, all persons must wear a face covering to enter the courthouse and at all times while inside.

UPDATE APPEALS: Will be heard telephonically. Documents can be submitted by drop box or through the mail.
