SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF SAN JOAQUIN UNIFORM BAIL SCHEDULE

Effective August 15, 2025

GENERAL INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

The Judges of the San Joaquin County Superior Court have adopted this Uniform Bail Schedule pursuant to California Penal Code section 1269b and the Local Rules of the Superior Court of California, for the County of San Joaquin, Rule 2-113. This schedule shall be effective as of August 15, 2025, at 11:59 p.m., shall supersede all prior versions, and shall remain in effect until amended by the Judges of the San Joaquin County Superior Court or by operation of law.

The full process of this bail schedule will be implemented in two phases.

Phase 1: Effective August 15, 2025, all bail amounts listed should be followed by custodial facility and/or other law enforcement personnel with a promise to appear for any person charged with a crime marked BR or CR. For all other offenses, the custodial facility and/or other law enforcement personnel may continue to accept bail unless otherwise barred by law until such date as Phase 2 is implemented.

Phase 2: The San Joaquin County Superior Court will implement a process for Magistrate Review for crimes designated MR. This date is to be determined.

PURPOSE OF BAIL SCHEDULE

The purpose of this schedule is to provide the bases for:

1. Custodial facility and/or other law enforcement personnel to determine whether a person arrested without a warrant may be cited and released, booked and released, should be subject to a magistrate review regarding the custody determination, or must be detained in custody until arraigned, and for arrestees detained on bailable offenses to determine the amount of bail that must be posted for the arrestee to gain release from custody prior to appearing in court;
2. Magistrates to set presumptive bail when issuing arrest warrants pursuant to California law, including, but limited to, Penal Code sections 815 et seq. and 1269 et seq., and when conducting a Magistrate Review as discussed in this schedule.
3. Judicial officers to set presumptive bail at arraignment, prior to a bail hearing.
4. Attorneys, when advising their clients, and members of the general public to estimate the approximate amount of bail that may be imposed based on the offense(s) charged.

SETTING OF BAIL

Before an appearance before a magistrate or first appearance in court, bail for bailable offenses shall be fixed in the amount set forth in the arrest warrant. If no arrest warrant has been issued, the San Joaquin County Sheriff or other authorized custodial authority shall determine the custodial status and/or set bail in accordance with this bail schedule.

At the first appearance before a magistrate or in court, bail shall be set in an amount within the sound discretion of the magistrate or judicial officer. Public safety shall be the primary consideration in setting bail. The magistrate or judicial officer may set bail in an amount less than or greater than the amount set forth in this schedule after taking into consideration the specific facts and circumstances of the case and other considerations as authorized by law, including, but not limited to, the likelihood that the arrestee will appear in court; the safety of the victim and the victim's family; the seriousness of the offense charged; the defendant's criminal record; and any other circumstances addressed by Penal Code sections 1269 through 1275.1, California Constitution, Article 1, sections 12 and 28(f)(3), and any other applicable provisions, statutes, and case law. The basis for any deviation from the bail schedule shall be stated on the record or memorialized during a Magistrate Review, as discussed below.

CUSTODIAL STATUS

The San Joaquin County Sheriff or other authorized custodial authority or law enforcement officer shall determine the custodial status of each arrestee based on the following four (4) categories as used in this schedule:

Custodial Category		Applicability
CR	Cite and Release*	Applies to all infraction, most misdemeanor, and designated felony offenses. Arrestees are released from the custody of law enforcement upon their signed promise to appear in court pursuant to Penal Code section 1318, with no posting of bail required.
BR	Book and Release*	Applies to designated misdemeanor and felony offenses. Arrestees are released from the custody of law enforcement after being photographed and fingerprinted, i.e., booked, at the county jail, and upon their signed promise to appear in court. The posting of bail shall not be required.
MR	Magistrate Review*	Applies to designated misdemeanor and felony offenses. The custodial or other authorized law enforcement officer shall contact the On-Call Judge. The On-call Judge shall determine the custody status of the arrestee, taking into consideration: Public safety; probability of arrestee appearing in court; safety of the victim and victim's family; seriousness of the offense; the defendant's criminal record; and such other considerations as set forth in Penal Code sections 1269 through 1275.1, California Constitution, Article 1, sections 12 and 28(f)(3), and any other applicable provisions, statutes, and case law. In addition to setting bail for bailable offenses, the magistrate may impose other non-monetary conditions of release. The amount of bail and non-monetary conditions imposed shall be the least restrictive necessary to ensure the public safety, the arrestee's appearance in court, and given the specific circumstances. Upon release from custody, the arrestee shall be required to execute a promise to appear consistent with Penal Code section 1318.

AR	Arraignment Review Only	Applies to persons charged with crimes described in California Constitution Article 1, sections 12 (a) through (c) and Section 28(f)(3); Penal Code section 1270.1 when the amount of bail sought to be imposed is more or less than that designated in the bail schedule; Penal Code section 1319 and 1319.5; and other felonies and misdemeanors designated as "AR" in this bail schedule.
*NOTE: A person arrested for a new offense shall not be released on his or her own recognizance until a hearing is held in open court before a magistrate or judge if any of the following apply: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Pursuant to Penal Code sections 1319.5(b): <ol style="list-style-type: none"> The person is currently on felony probation or felony parole. The person has failed to appear in court as ordered, resulting in a warrant being issued, three or more times over the three-year period preceding the current arrest (except for infractions arising from violations of the Vehicle Code) when the offense involves: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Any violation of the California Street Terrorism Enforcement and Prevention Act (Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 186.20) of Title 7 of Part 1). Any violation of Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 240) of Title 8 of Part 1 (assault and battery). A violation of Section 459 (residential burglary). Any offense in which the person is alleged to have been armed with or to have personally used a firearm. Any offense involving domestic violence. Any offense in which the defendant is alleged to have caused great bodily injury to another person. Any other felony offense not described in (a) through (f), above, unless the person is released pursuant to a court-operated or other pretrial release program with approval by the court, in which case the requirement for a hearing in open court shall not be required for an "own recognizance" release. Pursuant to Penal Code sections 1319.5(b), the person is arrested for a violent offense, as described in Penal Code section 667.5(c).

For those offenses for which the custody category is not designated in this bail schedule, custody status shall be determined within the sound discretion of the judicial officer.

ASSESSMENT OF BAIL IN FELONY CASES

Bail shall be separately determined and established in each case. For arrestees held in custody, bail shall be determined at the arraignment, first appearance in court, or at a bail review hearing in accordance with applicable California Constitutional provisions and statutes and in a manner consistent with In re Humphrey (2021) 11 Cal.5th 153. Prior to the arrestee's appearance in court, the Bail Schedule contemplates the following practices shall be applied in calculating bail:

1. For felony offenses, where the term to be imposed is selected from a triad, bail shall be determined by multiplying the mid-term of the triad by $10,000, with a minimum felony bail of $20,000 for determinate felony offenses. If the term to be imposed is a single number (not a triad), the bail shall be determined by multiplying that term by $10,000, with a minimum felony bail of $20,000.
2. When a defendant is booked on two or more charges arising from the same course of conduct and Penal Code section 654 would prevent multiple punishments, the bail shall be the amount of bail listed in the schedule for the charge having the highest bail.
3. When a defendant is booked on two or more charges arising from a single course of conduct that permits multiple punishments and Penal Code section 654 does not apply; bail shall be stacked (i.e., the full amount of the bail for each offense shall be added together to determine the total bail amount) or not stacked based on the specific facts and within the sound discretion of the magistrate or judicial officer. For offenses designated as "MR," the magistrate or judicial officer may (in accordance with Penal Code section 1269c) exercise sound discretion in setting the bail at an amount lesser or greater than the amount listed in the bail schedule, determining custody status, or setting conditions of release, taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the particular case.
4. Where an enhancement or multiple enhancements have been alleged for an offense or multiple offenses, the listed bail amounts for each enhancement shall be stacked or not stacked based on the specific facts and within the sound discretion of the magistrate or judicial officer.
5. Pursuant to Penal Code section 1275.1, a hold may be placed on an arrestee's/defendant's release from custody when a declaration, under penalty of perjury, has been made by a prosecutor or peace officer which establishes probable cause to believe that the source of any consideration, pledge, security, deposit or indemnification paid, given, or promised for the execution of bail was feloniously obtained, or if the magistrate or judicial officer has probable cause to believe the source of any such consideration, pledge, security, deposit, or indemnification paid, given, made or promised was feloniously obtained.

PRESUMPTIVE FELONY BAIL

Bail shall be set as specified in this schedule for the offenses listed below. For offenses not specifically listed, bail shall be calculated based on the midterm for the offense (or sole term if no triad), using the “Felony Catchall” provisions, below. Additional sums may be added for:

- Prior strike offenses:
 - If one prior strike is alleged, the bail amount may be doubled;
 - If two or more prior strikes are alleged, the bail amount may be tripled
- Current serious or violent offenses:
 - If the current offense is a serious felony, as defined in Penal Code section 1192.7(c), the bail shall be double the amount that would be calculated using the midterm (or sole term if no triad);
 - If the current offense is a violent felony, as defined in Penal Code section 667.5(c), the bail amount shall be triple the amount that would be calculated using the midterm (or sole term if no triad).
- Prior convictions for the same or similar offense that, by statute, result in an increased penalty for the current offense; and
- Enhancements, and/or special allegations.

For prior convictions for the same or similar offense, enhancements, and/or special allegations, the bail amount shall be as designated below, or if not specifically designated below, bail shall be set based on the total of the base term to be imposed, plus the corresponding additional term added, as set forth in this bail schedule.

For offenses where bail is designated as “NO BAIL,” the arrestee/defendant shall be held in custody without bail until bail is set within the sound discretion of the magistrate or judicial officer at the first appearance before the magistrate, or judicial officer, in court, or at a bail hearing.

ASSESSMENT OF BAIL IN MISDEMEANOR CASES

An arrestee/defendant charged with misdemeanor offenses only is entitled to release on their own recognizance, unless the release would compromise public safety, would not reasonably ensure the arrestee’s/defendant’s appearance for future court dates, or is otherwise prohibited by law. For bailable offenses where a determination has been made that neither an arrestee’s/defendant’s own recognizance release nor any non-monetary conditions imposable on their own-recognizance release, including, but not limited to release under the supervision of Pretrial Services, would be sufficient to protect the public safety or ensure the arrestee’s/defendant’s appearance in court, the arrestee/defendant is not eligible for release on their own recognizance. In such cases, they may be admitted to bail in accordance with the “Misdemeanors” portion of this schedule. If multiple misdemeanor offenses are charged, bail shall not be stacked if the provisions of Penal Code section 654 would apply. If Penal Code section 654 does not apply, bail for each offense shall be stacked or not stacked based on the specific facts and within the sound discretion of the magistrate or judicial officer

INFRACTIONS

Penal Code section 1269b(c) requires that county-wide bail schedules address bail for infractions, as well as misdemeanor and felony offenses. As used in this schedule, “bail” only applies to offenses for which a person can be held in custody. Infractions require no confinement. Consequently, refer to the bail schedule adopted annually by the Judicial Council and State law to determine the bail imposable for infraction and selected misdemeanor offenses, which schedule is adopted and incorporated herein by this reference.

EDITORIAL NOTES

- This bail schedule integrates the bail amounts for substantive offenses and the additional bail amounts imposable for enhancements, special allegations, and prior convictions by listing the applicable code sections in numerical order.
- Where code sections are listed without subsections, the listed bail amount applies to all chargeable subsections.
